

CHILD PROSTITUTION

IN THE PHILIPPINES

BY Margarita Laris

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- Manila- The capital of the largest in the country of the Philippines, Most of the child Prostitution takes place
- Prostitution tourists and the existence of sex tours catering to the Japanese, European and other tourists help keep child prostitution alive in the Philippines.
- Prostitution in the country side is starting to be relatively known as well.

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- Child prostitution has been going on for years
- A study has shown of about 75,000 children has been prostituted due to poverty.
- Children are often kidnapped by gangs or; are them self sold by family members, to even out a dept.
- Many are also recruit by friends or relatives

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- Children as young as five years of age are being prostituted .
- Many children who are prostituted by brothels are raped by 8-15 men per night.
- Most of the children ages 15-20 are subjected to sexual abuse and incest
- Most of the people paying for these services are business men, foreigners teenage boys

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- There are three of Child prostitution
 1. Children, prostituted by PIMPS.
 2. Children prostituted by BROTHELS
(brothel is a form of a gang)
 3. Also children prostituted by there family members, and friend.

Both Girls and boys are prostituted.

- Girls are RAPED, ABUSED and Sold for TRAFFICKING
- Boys are TRAFFICKED as well and used in commercial SEX and TOURISM SEX.

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- Pedophiles and child abusers benefit from countries like the Philippines where access to a child is available.
- There are tourist packages where people are accommodated with hotels and access to children .
- Many victims of pedophiles cant even press charges because all the offenders do is post bail and flee the country.

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- Prostitution in the Philippines is illegal.
- It is punished with imprisonment . If found convicted a person could face up to life in prison.
- The Philippines is the first country to pass an Anti Child Abuse law.
- In 1997 the Philippines signed anti – pedophilia cooperation agreements with countries like Great Britain and Australia.

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- Half way houses protect sex trade victims.
- These houses are known as Bahay Silungan Sa Daungan.
- BSSD provide free food and shelter for up to six months .
- This provide the women and children time to reunite with their families .

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- UNICEF is an active advocate on behalf of the children in the Philippines.
- UNICEF started its work in the Philippines in November 1948.
- UNICEF started THE CPC 6 MOVEMENT .
- Their mission is to promote and protect children's rights.

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- Child Hope is a non- profit organization whose mission is to advocate for children in the streets
- Child Hope was established in 1989.
- It helps around 2000 street children in the Philippines .
- The Philippine government has not complied with the laws protecting child trafficking and prostitution .

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- HIV and Aids are a big concern in reference to the children who are being prostituted.
- Many children are being infected due to men believing that children are immune to having any type of disease.
- Most men do not use protection when having sex with children.
- Gonorrhoea is a very common STD amongst children .

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- Prostituted children don't really recover from the trauma of being prostituted.
- The longer a child is prostituted the less likely the child would live a "normal" life.
- The children are exposed to physical and emotional trauma that is very hard to overcome.

CHILD PROSTITUTION

- References :
- Wikipedia.org Child Hope Asia Philippines.
- WWW.uri.edu/artsi/wms/hughes.philippipi.htm
- WWW.ASIANEWS .IT/VIEW.PHP
- HTTP://query.nytimes.com

CHILD PROSTITUTION

CHILD PROSTITUTION

CHILD PROSTITUTION

THE END....

THANK YOU